Company Overview

Executive Summary

McKenzie Jones International (MJI) is a specialist physical security and risk consultancy operating at the highest end of the market. We provide strategic, operational, and tactical security solutions for organisations and individuals exposed to elevated threat environments, geopolitical instability, and complex risk profiles.

MJI exclusively employs a select team of military and former government veterans with proven operational experience in hostile, denied, and sensitive environments. Our clients include Multinational Corporations, Defence, UHNW families, Government Contractors, Non Government Organisations, and Critical National Infrastructure organisations.

We combine:

- Intelligence-led risk analysis
- Operational excellence
- Discreet, white-glove service
- Rapid deployment capability
